Here are a number of independent referrals from a small selection of our satisfied clients.

“ANT are fantastic at after sales and support, I can pick up the phone and call the guys at home, that level of service is priceless”

Captain Bob Kercher

“Other companies can be tied into particular brands. ANT cherry pick the best components and will find the right equipment rather than choosing a regular supplier”

Tim Heywood, Tim Heywood designs

“ANT make mistakes the same as any other contractor, but they always stand by their warranty and do everything they can to resolve the problem”

Duncan Soffe, Evolute

“ANT’s strength is that they have a core group of guys and once you get them working on a project you know you are in safe and good hands and you know they will take personal pride in their work”

Andrew Senn, Owners Representative

“With an enviable choice of leading edge technology based products to choose from ANT’s systems are fully integrated and we benefit from the support provided by their wide network of partners I would like to be more critical but I can’t”

Captain Paul Cook

“We are all very impressed by the project management that they have on site, they are organised and dedicated”

Pierre Van Der Walt, Owners Representative
